The R&B all female funk band KLYMAXX is KLYMAXXTIC! Still going strong their music is a staple on the radio and in dance clubs around the world. Belting out hits like, “The Men All Pause” and “Meeting in the Ladies Room” the group’s name is synonymous with classic women’s anthems. Their beautiful ballad, “I Miss You”, was Billboard Magazine’s #3 song of 1986 and still to this day is played when love is in the air.

Continuing into the 90’s with the #4 R&B hit, “Good Love” followed their sultry Neo-Soul groove entitled, “Private Party” showed evident that they could flow with the changing music trends.

Much of the group’s success can be credited to Cheryl Cooley, Co-founder and original member. She has personally nurtured the group’s unique sound by overseeing the infusion of 80’s funk with a modern swag. Her enthusiasm and vision have transformed KLYMAXX into a leaner meaner entity producing live music that delivers dynamic vocals and uncompromised grooves.

These ladies are serious about entertaining their fans and continuing with the KLYMAXX legacy.

The 1980s were a fabulous year for music. Many bands had breakout careers and hit songs during this decade leaving behind an indelible mark on music history. One such band was way ahead of its hand taking it a step further by following in the footsteps of female musicians like Sister Rosetta Thorpe. The all-female band I am speaking of is Klymaxx. Yes, The Maxx is back and I am so proud and excitedly happy about that.

Original member guitarist Cheryl Cooley has a brand-new line-up of the iconic group. The members are as follows: Lead Vocalist Christie Malone, Vocalist Tiffany Payne, Drummer and Vocalist Tramisha Vaughn, Bassist April Fletcher, Keyboardist Maggie Daniec and the awesome lady of Klymaxx Cheryl Cooley.

The 1980s brought about real musical change and Klymaxx the first all-female R&B, Pop and Funk band flipped the script on everyone. It was during this time that Cheryl Cooley who was spotted rehearsing in a studio by these innovative women who dared to be different and give us a new image of what a band, as well as a strong musician, should look like. This is why Klymaxx is my musical heroes because of this dare to be not only sexy, clever, smart, but talented gifted musicians and vocalist. They were a well-oiled music making sisterhood and they made me as well as other young women and girls feel important and empowered.

Press: THE BACKBEAT R&B SPOTLIGHT IS ON THE LEGENDARY CHERYL COOLEY OF KLYMAXX!

Show-stopping, hot and brilliant is how Klymaxx's Cheryl Cooley fans would describe her. Entertaining music lovers all over the world, Cheryl has an extraordinary commanding stage presence when performing and, as a friend of mine who is a great fan of the group recently said: "She Owns It". Cheryl plucks those guitar strings with such exhilaration there's no denying she's such a great musician and entertainer. Her creativity and brilliance scored Klymaxx the record deal for their first single "Never Underestimate The Power Of A Woman".

This month in our Spot-Light section of BackBeat R&B, we are featuring Klymaxx's, Ms. Cheryl Cooley. As Blog Talk Radio recently said: "Klymaxx is "Klymaxxtic" and yes they are. A group of talented women who polish the stage with such electrifying energy and elegance, as they sing, dance and pump out some of their greatest hits ever as well as dishing out some of their new music.

OMG, who can forget some of their greatest songs "Meeting In The Ladies Room", "The Men All Pause" and "I Miss You". BackBeat R&B caught up with Ms. Cooley to gain a touch of insight into her life and what's new for "Klymaxx" Featuring Cheryl Cooley. – Belinda Barnes Backbeat R&B May 24th, 2018.
