Shawn Pfaffman is a Pioneer of Musical Ideas who is constantly entering uncharted territory and creating new music and musical styles. He is a Hammond Organ player, pianist, singer, composer, and songwriter. His music is heavily rooted in Soul, Jazz, and Blues that he learned while growing up in Alabama. As an avid traveler, he works to incorporate styles from other cultures into his music as well. He has created a style of music called AZUL, which combines Southern Funk and Blues with Caribbean Latin grooves. He has also created music that is classified as Southern Jazz (Jazz with a lot of Blues, Gospel, and Southern Soul). Finally, he has created Junk, which is Jazz and Funk.
